The Riddance Sale which we launched out a few weeks ago, without much ado, has reached such proportions that we find ourselves drawn over with the jam, the crowd, and the multitude of buyers so that, in fact, were we to withdraw this sale, now at its height, it would cause wide-spread lamenting. But we are not yet in a position to say: "We have too much room," or to say, "No use to throw away our hard earnings," by selling goods at cost, or less. We still require more space in order to place our business on the right road, and if prices during this week will deplete our stock, we are willing.

WASHINGTON CITY wants one million dollars for street and sewer improvements. Washington believes in going ahead. It's a good purpose to tie to.

MONEY is represented as plenty throughout the East, and the banks are not finding it the easiest matter in the world to make loans at profitable rates.

IF East Los Angeles carries out the extensive system of street improvements there projected, it will soon be voted the most delightful suburb of the city.

COUNCIL yesterday approved the contract for paving Spring street in front of the city property. With that block laid Los Angeles makes a seven-league stride for improvement.

THE rain at this time is a questionable blessing for the farmers. The tendency of much wet weather will be to lodge and rust grain. Fruit-farmers will neither be benefited nor damaged to any great extent.

THE monument fiend expects to be able to raise about $150,000 to perpetuate the memory of the "loyalty and devotion" of the late Vice-President Hendricks. The m. f. is a purveyor of news.

SAN DIEGO, by the census just about completed, claims a population of 6200. The Sun maintains that the figures have doubled within a year, and sets the stakes at 10,000 by the first of January, 1887. Building is active, and business on a boom.

TUESDAY's active municipal contest in Santa Barbara resulted in the re-election of George W. Coffin to mayoralty, over several other candidates, one of whom is a clown and another a fraud and a beat. The people of Santa Barbara did well to select the better timber.

C. P. HUNTINGTON has finally decided that, after all, he cannot entertain the proposition of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé for two California pools. "A single pool," he said, "was necessary for justice to his roads." This ends all pending negotiations for the settlement of the rate war.

THE people of the Southern States without any prohibition political organizations, are making more rapid advances in temperance than in those of any other section of the country. They rank by "local option" and high license what it would be impossible to accomplish by other methods.

THE APACHES.

The Prisoners to be Sent to Fort Marion, Fla.

Special Dispatch to The Times.

FORT BOWIE, A. T., April 6.—The Chiricahua Apaches who surrendered to Gen. Crook March 29, and arrived here April 3, in charge of Lieut. Maus, will be sent to Fort Marion, St. Augustine, Florida, as prisoners of war. The squaws and children go too, making seventy-six in all. Company E, Eighth Infantry, go as a guard, under command of Lieut. J. R. Richards, Fourth Cavalry. The prisoners are giving a grand dance to-night at their camp, as a farewell to Gen. Crook's Chiricahua scouts. The prisoners know that they are going away, but don't know where. They take it very philosophically. Chihuahua told Gen. Crook to-day that wherever he sent him it was all right, but he hoped he would not suffer imprisonment too long, because he would lose a wagon he had at the reservation.

Santiago McKinn, their eleven-year-old white captive, was sent home to-day. He would not leave the camp with a white man, and had to be brought into the fort by Chiricahuas. He bawled loudly when told that he was to be taken back to his parents, and said he always wanted to stay with the Indians. LUM.

THE DEADLY DRUG.

A California Girl's Death in Chicago From Smoking Opium.

CHICAGO, April 6.—Jennie Woods, a handsome woman of twenty, was taken from an opium den here yesterday, and died soon afterward from the effects of smoking, as it is declared, ten pipes of the deadly opiate. Her husband, Solin E. Woods, a travelling agent for an electric light company, was in New York at the time. It is stated that she went out with a medical student and accompanied him to the den kept by a Chinaman named Sam Lee and his white wife, both of whom were arrested last night. She left there with her male companion, who succeeded in getting her to her room, where she died before a physician could be summoned. Her companion has disappeared. Her identity has not been made clear, but it is stated that she is from California, where her parents are now supposed to live. Her maiden name was Jennie H. Reynolds. One result of her death was the raiding of three opium joints last night and the arrest of thirty inmates in a basement at the corner of Charles Place and West Van Buren street. Am Yuh, the proprietor, and five white visitors were found, among whom was Pat Kelley, an escaped convict from San Quentin, Cal. Three others are described as "crooks" from California, who first learned the habit among the Chinese dens of San Francisco.

The Cincinnati Election.

CINCINNATI, April 6.—With six precincts of the city not heard from, the majority of Eschelby, Republican, for Comptroller over Schwab, Democrat, is 7095; that of Hess, Republican, for City Infirmary over Armstrong, Democrat, is 3405. These represent the extremes. Both branches of the Common Council and Board of Education have a Republican majority.

A Mining Superintendent Killed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—The Call's Guaymas, Mexico, special this evening says: C. S. Benham, Superintendent of the Copper Queen Mining Company at Cananea, Sonora, was shot dead at Bacoachi to-day by his coachman, Fred. Sweet. The murderer was arrested. No cause is assigned. Mrs. Benham is prostrated by the event.

High License at Hollister.

HOLLISTER, Cal., April 6.—The Board of Town Trustees passed a high-license ordinance last night, fixing the retail liquor license at $600 per annum, payable in advance, and requiring a bond of $1000. The ordinance was passed by a vote of 3 to 2.

The Rainfall.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Rain fell at intervals throughout the day. It is still raining to-night. Reports from interior points show that it has been raining all along the coast as far south as Santa Barbara. No rain is reported from San Joaquin valley points to-day.

WASHINGTON.

Chinese Treaties as Viewed by Cleveland.

GOODE'S PAN-ELECTRIC INNOCENCE.

Vilas in the Role of a Postal Pooh-Bah—Proceedings in the Senate and House.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The Senate received from the President to day a long message transmitting the correspondence between the Secretary of State and the Chinese Minister, with regard to the treaty rights of Chinese subjects, other than laborers, to go and come of their own free will and accord. The President says that cases of individual hardship beyond the power of the Executive to remedy, have occurred in the application of the Chinese acts, which are due to the ambiguous and defective provisions of acts of Congress. Hardship has, in some cases, been remedied by the courts, but in others, where the phraseology has appeared to be conclusive against any discretion on the part of the officers Chinese persons expressly entitled to free admission under the treaty have been refused a landing, and have been sent back to the country whence they came without being afforded an opportunity to show their rights. The act of July 5th, 1884, the President says, imposes an impossible condition in not providing for the admission, under proper conditions, of Chinese travelers of the exempted class in cases most likely to arise in ordinary commercial intercourse, for the somewhat numerous class of Chinese persons who, retaining Chinese subjection in some countries other than China, desire to come from such countries to the United States. A complaint of the Chinese Minister is that Lay Sang, of the house of King, Lee & Co., of San Francisco, having arrived at San Francisco from Hong Kong and exhibited the certificate of the United States Consul at Hong Kong as to his status as a merchant and consequent exception under the treaty, was refused permission to land, and was sent back to Hong Kong by the steamer which brought him. It is to be remembered, the President says, that there is at Hong Kong no representation of the government of China competent or authorized to issue the certificate required by the statutes. "The intent of Congress to legislate in the execution of the treaty," the President says, "is thus defeated by a prohibition directly contrary to the treaty, and the conditions are exactly those which, in the words of the Supreme Court, it was 'physically impossible to perform.' This anomalous feature should be reformed as speedily as possible, in order that the recurrence of such cases may be avoided, and the imputation removed which would otherwise rest on the good faith of the United States in the execution of their solemn treaty engagement."

XLIX CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—In the Senate Mr. Plumb presented the petition of an association of colored citizens of Kansas, praying for assistance to emigrate to Africa with a view of there building up another United States republic.

Mr. Plumb said that he understood that there was a strong determination on the part of the petitioners to carry out the emigration scheme referred to.

The petition was referred.

Mr. Blair reported favorably, without amendment, from the Committee on Education and Labor, the Arbitration bill recently passed by the House of Representatives.

The consideration of the Army bill was resumed, and Mr. Logan spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Hale opposed the bill.

Mr. Manderson supported the bill.

The Chair laid before the Senate a message from the President relating to the subject of Chinese immigration. The message was read and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

After an executive session the Senate adjourned.

House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—In the House Mr. Phelps of New Jersey, from Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a resolution calling on the Secretary of State for copies of all correspondence between his department and the representatives of France, Germany, Austria and any other European countries which have partially or entirely restricted the importation of American pork, referring to the facts of such exclusion or restriction and the reason given for the same. Adopted.

Among the petitions presented were a large number from local assemblies of Knights of Labor throughout the country, protesting against the passage of the Free Ship bill. Referred.

The House returned to the consideration of the bill to secure the equitable classification and compensation of certain officers of the United States. Pending action the morning hour expired. Then there was a prospect of a struggle for the right of way between the Silver and the Postoffice Appropriation bill, but, in the interest of the speedy transaction of business, Mr. Bland, of Missouri, gave way, and the House went into committee of the whole on the Postoffice Appropriation bill.

Mr. Bingham, of Pennsylvania, offered an amendment increasing from $4,800,000 to $4,890,000 the appropriation for the pay of postal clerks. Lost—54 to 87.

Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, offered an amendment increasing the appropriation for the transportation of foreign mails from $375,000 to $425,000.

Mr. Phelps of New Jersey favored the amendment. What good, he asked, had come of the foreign mail provision in the Postoffice Appropriation bill of last year? American ships did not carry the foreign mail. The policy of the Mikado had entered the Cabinet. In the Postoffice Department was found the "Pooh-Bah" of an administration which sat there, not only as the Postmaster General, but as President of the United States and as Congress, so that whatever Congress passed, he, by triple assurance, could defeat; because, as Postmaster General, he could refuse to execute its wishes; as President of the United States he could veto it, and, as Congress of the United States, he could defeat it—and there was no redress for that.

Mr. Holman, of Indiana, defended the Postmaster General. No public officer had ever acted more prudently and wisely than the Postmaster General in refusing to expend money at the dictation of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company.

Mr. Randall also sustained the action of the Postmaster General, and thought that both sides of the House should approve of the wise discretion he had exercised.

Mr. Blount, of Georgia, suggested that the gentleman from New Jersey ought not to place the blame of his own failure in the late campaign upon the shoulders of a clergyman.

The amendment was lost—82 to 100.

The committee then rose, and the bill was passed.

The House then adjourned.

GUILELESS GOODE.

His Childlike Innocence of Pan-Electric Convolutions.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Solicitor-General Goode was before the Pan-Electric investigating committee again to-day, and on cross-examination by Mr. Ranney, stated that he was not aware of using any undue or unusual haste in ordering the suit against the Bell Company; nor had he given any thought to the motives of the attorney who offered to appear in the suit without compensation from the government. If he had known of the Attorney-General's connection with the Pan-Electric Company, and an application for the suit had been made, his action would have been the same as it was.

"Didn't it occur to you," asked Mr. Rappey, "that the Bell patents had been the subject of many decisions of courts, and had withstood all charges of fraud, and that this was a pretty late day to set up fraud?"

"No," replied the witness firmly, "and I want to say further that I did not know that the Bell company was hedged about with such a divinity that it could not be brought into court like other companies. There is one point I desire to make clear, and that is that the Attorney General had no more to do with the institution of this suit than any member of the committee."

NATIONAL NOTES.

A Maine Congressman on the Coolie Question.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—A special to the Examiner from Washington says: The Congressmen who accompanied the body of Senator Miller to San Francisco returned to-day. Representative Milliken, Republican, of Maine, says in regard to the Chinese question that, while he is in favor of affording the Chinamen already in this country the rights that other citizens enjoy, they are undoubtedly a curse to any community where they congregate in large numbers. He says that if the Chinatown of San Francisco could be transplanted to Washington for even one day, every member of Congress would be found voting for a bill to forever prohibit their further importation.

SECRETARY MANNING.

There is no decided change in Secretary Manning's condition.

THE RIVAL ROADS.

Pacific Mail and the Railways—The Rate War.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The agents of the Atchison and Sunset lines held a conference this morning and decided to extend the rates until Thursday next. Wise men on the street claim that this is done because the next Pacific Mail steamer sails Thursday, and that the new combination which is said to have gained control of the steamship line will not take the management until the following steamer sails.

THAT $85,000 SUBSIDY.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—The Chronicle to-morrow will publish an article showing the method adopted by the overland railroads in the disposition of the so-called Pacific Mail subsidy fund. The article, in substance, charges that although under the last agreement of the overland roads to pay Pacific Mail $85,000 monthly to cease competition, the railroads shipped an average of $50,000 monthly by Pacific Mail steamers, leaving a balance of only $35,000 a month to be paid. The Chronicle says that even this amount the overland roads managed to avoid paying. They collected, as charged, through the medium of an advance rate system from all the Eastern trunk and Iowa lines, a certain proportion to be applied to what was termed the "steamship fund," and out of which the balances due the Pacific Mail were paid. The Chronicle will publish the figures, to show that in the division of the excess which remained in the fund after paying the Pacific Mail's balance, the Eastern trunk and Iowa lines were completely ignored, notwithstanding the fact that the latter roads had contributed 25 per cent. to the fund.

THE NORTHWESTERN POOL.

CHICAGO, April 6.—The railway lines formerly composing the Northwestern Traffic Association held a session here to-day, in an attempt to restore freight rates. The Illinois Central failed to send representatives, but offered to do so to-morrow, and the session adjourned. Many were of the opinion that an agreement would be reached to establish a summer tariff, to be lived up to without, however, reorganizing the old pool.

THE RATES AGAIN REDUCED.

DENVER, Col., April 6.—Union Pacific this evening began selling first-class limited tickets to San Francisco for $30, with $5 rebate. This is a reduction of $5, which will be met in the morning by the Denver and Rio Grande and the Santa Fé roads. Railroad officials here think the prospects for a speedy termination of the transcontinental war by no means bright.

BLASTS OF BOREAS.

Snow, Rain and Wind at Work East of the Rockies.

CHICAGO, April 6.—A heavy snow storm, accompanied by high winds, has resulted in practically cutting off all telegraphic communication between the West and New York. The storm centre is near Buffalo, and extends north into Canada, the south covering Cleveland, Pittsburg, Detroit, Cincinnati, and even south of the Ohio river.

ALONG THE ATLANTIC COAST.

NEW YORK, April 6.—Dispatches from all along the coast report the tides unusually high. In a number of places wreckage is reported as coming ashore, and the sea is running very high. Many localities are blocked by landslides and washouts.

DEEP SNOW AT DETROIT.

DETROIT, Mich., April 6.—The present storm is undoubtedly the worst experienced in this State for many years. Early this morning several attempts were made to run street cars, but the snow drifted so rapidly that it became impossible to keep the track clear, and the cars were snowed up at various points on nearly all the lines in the city. The Signal Service reports fourteen inches of snow on a level. Telegraph business is much delayed.

LAND SLIDES AND WASHOUTS.

PITTSBURG, April 6.—The damage to railroads and the telegraph by the storm is very great. Wires are prostrated in all directions. Nearly every railroad entering the city has suffered from either land slides or washouts. Rivers and creeks at all points are rising fast, and rivermen predict at least thirty-five feet here by to-morrow morning. This would inundate all the lower parts of the two cities and cause a suspension of work in all of the mills and factories lining the river.

FROM THE ORIENT.

Massacre of Christians at the Philippine Islands.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—The steamer Gaelic arrived this morning with Hong Kong dates to March 13th and Yokohama to the 23d.

A MASSACRE AT THE PHILIPPINES.

Advices from the Philippine Islands state that on February 15th a party of Mohammedan fanatics attacked the mission house at Seamontaca, on the island of Mindonao, set fire to it as well as to the dwelling house of the priests, the old church, a new church in course of construction and the store houses, the whole being reduced to ashes. The loss is estimated at $18,000. A force was subsequently sent to chastise the fanatics, when twelve were killed and several wounded, the loss on the Spanish side being one Captain of Infantry and four men wounded and one man killed. The day previous the same band burned the village of Amadeo and the naval coal depot. The losses were very great.

THE TEA CROP.

Yokohama reports from the tea districts continue favorable.

NEWS FROM CHINA.

Hong Kong advices say that Gen. Wilson and a number of officers from the United States steamer Monocacy are, at the request of Li Hung Change, surveying the line of the projected railroad along the Grand canal.

The Overland China Mail says: The news of anti-Chinese persecutions in the United States has created a very dangerous anti-foreign feeling in Canton, and fears were entertained that the natives would attempt the reprisals mentioned by the Viceroy of Kwong Tung in his dispatch to the Chinese Minister at Washington.

Jacob Sharp Denies.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The Tribune publishes a two column interview with Jacob Sharp in regard to the Broadway franchise steal. He denies that he ever bribed any aldermen, and says that he ought to be in Sing Sing prison if he did. He says the city got well paid for the franchise. The whole tone of the article shows that he is not disturbed at all by the threats made to arrest him.

Greece Concludes to Go Slow.

ATHENS, April 6.—To-day being the 57th anniversary of the declaration of Greek Independence, is celebrated as a holiday. There were no public demonstrations.

LONDON, April 6.—A dispatch from Athens to the Daily Telgraph says that the King of Greece and his Ministers have issued an order to abandon war preparations, as Prince Alexander has yielded to the powers.

WAITING WORKERS.

The Strikers at St. Louis Still Hold Out,

BUT FREIGHT CONTINUES TO MOVE.

The Knights Issue a Furious Fulmination Against Gould—All Quiet Again at Fort Worth.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—After the departure last night of Secretary Turner, of the general Executive Board, for the principal strike centres on the Gould Southwestern system, the remaining members of the committee announced the unanimous determination of the Board to continue the present strike until an arrangement can be entered into with Hoxie restoring all of the strikers to their former positions, with the exception only of those who participated in acts of violence and the destruction of property since the strike began. The railway officials claim that the continuance of their regular business, which they say now has been fully resumed, depends not in the least upon the actions of any labor organization, and that the freight blockade has been permanently raised. They also claim that they have employed a sufficient number of new men to render them entirely independent of the Knights, and that the strike will come to naught. The members of the General Executive Board, however, state that they are confident of the success of the strike. "For," says Turner, "the roads cannot be opened without the Knights. Skilled and unskilled labor in the United States is controlled by our organization."

CONFLICTING STATEMENTS.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The following telegram was received here this morning:

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—To Jay Gould, President, New York: Two hundred and fifty-eight trains are moving on the system. Seventy-six more are ready to move. More applications for work than any day since the strike.

(Signed,) H. M. HOXIE.

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—The general Executive Board of Knights of Labor have sent a telegram to Hon. A. G. Curtin, saying that his resolution for the appointment of a committee to consider the present difficulties on the Gould Southwestern System meets their hearty approval. They ask for its passage, and the immediate presence of the committee in St. Louis. They say that the statement that the company is now carrying on its business is not true, and the reports that they are sending out so many trains are misleading. These are not trains. Some of them are half trains; some are composed of less than that number of cars; some are empty cars sent out to make a show.

ALL QUIET AT FORT WORTH.

FORT WORTH, Tex., April 6.—To-day at noon the last of the troops left and the city is without protection from outside sources, except two companies of State Rangers, who will remain here some time. Trains have been moving all day without opposition. The Knights of Labor to-day adopted resolutions declaring themselves law-abiding citizens and condemning all acts of lawlessness and violence. The indications are that the trouble here is ended. No further opposition to the movement of trains is anticipated.

AN APPEAL.

The Knights' Address to the Workingmen of the World.

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—The joint Executive Board of Assemblies No. 101, 93 and 17, Knights of Labor, this afternoon issued the following address:

To the Workingmen of the World—FRIENDS AND BROTHERS: Hear us, for we plead for our rights. Men of equity, look upon us, for we struggle against giants of wrong mad with the frenzy of the pride of self-adulation, begotten as it is of the success of outrage. There stands before us a giant of aggregated and incorporated wealth, every dollar of which is built upon the blood of injustice and outrage. That giant of corporate wealth has centralized its power in and is impersonated by an eager fiend who gloats as he grinds the life of his fellow-men, and grimaces and dances as they writhe upon his instruments of torture. O, ye workingmen of America who love your liberty and your native land, ye great creators of wealth, who stand as the foundation of all national good, look upon your brothers to day! Gould, the giant fiend; Gould, the money monarch, is dancing, as he claims, over the grave of our Order, over the ruin of our homes and the blight of our lives. Before him the world has smiled in beauty, but his wake is the graveyard of hopes, the cyclone's path of devastation and death. Our strong arms have grown weary in building his tower of strength, and yet he bids us build on or die. Our young lives have grown grey too soon beneath the strain of unrequitted, constant toil. Our young ones at home are hollow-cheeked and pale with long and weary waiting for better days to come. Nay, more than this, the grave yards are hiding his victims from our longing eyes. Brother workmen, this monster fiend has compelled some of us to toil in cold and rain for next to no pay. Others have been compelled to yield their time to him for seventeen and thirty-six weary hours for a pittance of nine hours' pay. Others who have dared to assert their manhood and rebel against his tyranny are blacklisted and boycotted all over the land. He has made a solemn compact with the highest authority in our Order and then basely refused to fulfil his pledge. He lives under and enjoys all the benefits of a republican form of government, and yet advocates and perpetuates a most debasing form of white slavery. He robs rich and poor, high and low, with ruthless hand, and then appeals to corrupt and purchased courts to help him take our little homes away. He breaks our limbs and maims our bodies, and then demands that we shall release him from every claim for damages or be blacklisted forever. He goes to our grocers and persuades them not to give us credit because we refused to be ground in his human mill. He turns upon us a horde of lawless thugs, who shoot among our wives and children with deadly intent, and then he bowls for government help. Fellow workmen, Gould must be overthrown! His giant power must be broken, or you and I must be slaves forever. The Knights of Labor alone have dared to be a David to this Goliath. The battle is not for to-day—the battle is not for tomorrow—but for trooping generations in the coming ages of the world—for our children and our children's children. It is the great question of the age, shall we in coming ages be a nation of freemen or a nation of slaves. The question must be decided now. The chains are already forged that are to bid us. Shall we wait until they are rivited upon our limbs? Nay, God forbid! Workmen of the world, marshal yourselves upon the battle field! Workmen of every trade and clime, on to the fray! Gould and his monopolies must go down or our children must be slaves. Think of the little olive plants around your hearthstones that will be blighted by his curse. Think of the little home he is seeking to rob you of. Think of the wife from whose eyes he has wrung floods of tears, and from whose heart he has tortured drops of blood. Who can look calmly upon his perfidy, his outrage, and his crime? For he has sought to incite felony among our rank and file. He has bought the perfidy of vile men to entrap the unwary that he might stain our fair name and gloat over our misfortunes. Once for all, fellow-workmen, arouse! Let every hand that toils be lifted to heaven, and swear by Him that liveth forever that these outrages must cease. Let every heart and brow be turned toward our common foe, and let no man grow weary until, like Goliath our giant is dead at our feet.

(Signed) EXECUTIVE BOARDS, ASSEMBLIES NOS. 17, 93 and 101.

A River Steamer Upset.

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—A special from Owensboro, Ky., says: The steamer Mountain Boy turned over at this place in a gale at 2 o'clock this morning. Frank Absher, the watchman, Scott Lowery, a roustabout, and Billy Statler, a passenger, were drowned. Fourteen other persons were saved.

SAN FRANCISCO.

An Opinion on High License—Notes from the Golden Gate.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—The Judiciary Committee of the Board of Supervisors having requested John Lord Love, City and County Attorney, to give an opinion as to whether the decision of the Supreme Court in the Los Angeles high license case gives to the San Francisco Supervisors the power to alter the license law, Mr. Love replies that it does not, and gives as his reason for that decision that the San Francisco charter contains a limitation which does not exist in the Los Angeles charter, and which has never been repealed in the general law in accordance with the provisions of the constitution. He cites half a dozen Supreme Court decisions in support of this view of the case, and repeats that the Board of Supervisors in fixing license cannot exceed the limitation made by the city charter as fixed by the law of 1878. The opinion was read at the meeting of the convention this afternoon, and a motion was carried to report back to the Board in accordance with the City Attorney's opinion.

DEATH OF DR. THOMAS WADE.

Dr. Thomas Wade, a builder and former owner of the Grand Opera House, of this city, which was formerly known as Wade's Opera House, died suddenly this morning at his home in Oakland from internal hemorrhage. He was 55 years of age, and leaves a wife and grown children.

THE GRAND LODGE A. O. U. W.

The annual session of the Grand Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of California, began to-day. The business of the day was receiving reports of outgoing officers. The election of new officers will take place to-morrow.

A RESULT OF BOYTON'S SWIM.

In his eleven days' paddle down the Sacramento river from Red Bluff to San Francisco, Capt. Paul Boyton lost thirty-four pounds of flesh.

COL. ANDREWS TO SERVE AGAIN.

Gov. Stoneman yesterday appointed Col. A. Andrews commissioner to the American exhibition of arts, inventions, manufactures, products and resources of the United States, to be held in London, England, next year.

JOAQUIN MILLER ARRIVES.

Joaquin Miller, the poet, arrived in this city yesterday from Mexico.

THE RACES POSTPONED.

Owing to the heavy rains to-day and the muddy condition of the track, the Blood-Horse races which were to have taken place to-day were postponed to Saturday.

RATHER AWKWARD.

The New Chinese Ambassador has to Show His Credentials.

SAN FRANCISCO, Tuesday, April 6.—His Excellency, Chang Yen Hoon, Chinese Ambassador to the United States, accompanied by twenty attendants, arrived to-day by the steamer Gaelic from Hong Kong. He will remain here one week and then go direct to Washington.

Just as the Minister, followed by his suite, was about to step ashore he was stopped by a customs officer, who informed him that he could not allow him to pass until he had shown by properly-authenticated documents that he was entitled to land in the United States. The Chinese Consul General, and Chinese Consul, who were present to receive the Minister, expressed some indignation that such a formality should be required in this instance, but as the officer insisted the minister dispatched one of his secretaries for his credentials, accrediting him to the government of the United States. When these were produced the surveyor informed the minister that the customs' officers must have something to show that he and his suite had been properly admitted to this port. The minister's passport was then sent for, and after a duplicate certified copy had been made, the embassy was allowed to land.

Chinese Consul Bee has made the following statement in regard to the refusal of the customs authorities to allow the minister to land without producing the necessary papers: "Secretary Bayard sent instructions to the collector of this port to permit the legation to land free, and to extend to them every courtesy. Just at the moment His Excellency and suite were about to step ashore, the surveyor informed me that the collector had just sent an order not to permit the legation to land until His Excellency's credentials were sent to the custom house for examination. This was communicated to His Excellency, who expressed much surprise at the action of the collector, remarking that his government had instructed him only to present his credential to the President of the United States, and adding that they were packed in his baggage under seal, and it would be very inconvenient to get at them at that moment, and therefore he preferred to remain on the ship until communication could be had with Washington. Finally, after a delay of an hour and a half, the Minister and suite were permitted to leave the ship."

GREAT BRITAIN.

Gladstone's Inharmonious Cabinet—House of Commons Rules.

LONDON, April 6.—The Cabinet met at noon to-day, and remained in session until 2 o'clock. Gladstone laid before the Ministers his Irish Home Rule scheme. Earl of Kimberly, Secretary for India, Childers Home Secretary, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Murdell, President of the Board of Trade, are, it is said, as much opposed as ever to that feature which surrenders the control of customs in Ireland. As Gladstone remains firm these Ministers, rumor says, will resign.

Sir Ponsonby, Private Secretary of the Queen, was sent by Her Majesty this afternoon to confer on her behalf with Lord Hartington, leader of the Whigs in the Commons. The interview lasted a long time. Afterwards the Marquis of Salisbury had a long private conference with Hartington.

RATHER BINDING ON THE M. P'S.

NEW YORK, April 6.—A London cablegram says: The Speaker has decided to order the opening of the doors of the House of Commons at 6 o'clock on Thursday morning, after which hour members will be entitled to secure seats in the usual manner, but those members having secured seats must remain in the building until after the formal meeting of the House. Otherwise their rights to seats will be forfeited. This order will be rigidly enforced. Caterers are already arranging to supply breakfast and luncheons to the members, and many orders were booked to day.

BRACING UP THE CABINET.

LONDON, April 6.—The Times says that a desperate effort was made at yesterday's meeting of the Cabinet to prevent its disruption, and that the effort succeeded. Mr. Gladstone consented to eliminate his proposal to yield the control of the customs to the Irish Parliament.

FORSTER'S LAST WORDS.

The last words uttered by Mr. Forster before his death yesterday were, "No home rule."

AN IMPORTANT CHANGE.

The Home Office will cease to offer rewards for the detection of criminals, or pardons to accomplices who may make confessions, on the ground that the principle involved is wrong, and that experience shows that such a course almost invariably fails of its object.

The Santa Barbara Election.

SANTA BARBARA, April 6.—The election of city officers took place yesterday. The largest number of votes was polled and the greatest interest was shown. G. W. Coffin was re-elected Mayor against three opponents, and Fred A. Moore was elected Assessor against three opponents. In the evening, when it was decided that Mayor Coffin was reelected, Major Durfee, one of the defeated candidates for Mayar, headed the band to serenade Mayor Coffin and others.

Oakland and Los Angeles.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Among the recommendations made by Mayor Playter, of Oakland in his semi-annual message to the City Council last night was that the aid of the citizens of Los Angeles be sought to have a general act adopted by the Legislature suitable for a charter for each of the two cities, which are the only two cities in the State, except San Francisco, having more than 30,000 inhabitants.

THE FESTIVAL.

Second Day of the Second Week.

THE FIRST LIGHT ATTENDANCE.

Several New Booths—The Public Schools and the University of Southern California Make Exhibits.

The rain of yesterday was manifest in the considerably lessened attendance at the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon and evening. It was the first "light day" the ladies have had, and it was a positive relief. Of course, a good many people were present, but it takes more than a good many to fill the Tabernacle.

The flower screens presented to the Society the evening before were objects of much interest. The offering of the Woman's Relief Corps bore the symbol of a monument made of callas, white roses and heliotropes. The other represented crossed swords in violets, with hilts of yellow flowers, the whole set in a field of green with relief letters "G. A. R. Gelcich Post 106."

The Ventura Booth showed a cornucopia of evergreens and geraniums, and a horn of roses and evergreens. The "melanthus," filling a hanging basket, showed a peculiar flower and foliage. The holly brought reminiscences of Christmas and "Merrie England."

THE UNIVERSITY DISPLAY.

A new feature of the Festival last evening was a display of paintings, decorated china and other household dainties by Mrs. S. S. Durbin and her art pupils of the University of Southern California.

Mrs. Durbin exhibited thirty-six pieces of china, painted and burned by herself; a striking snow scene on a glass tile, and some beautiful sketches in water colors of a pepper bough, a Chinese lily, and a bunch of grasses.

Miss Alice Todd exhibited an elegant plush framed and decorated mirror with a woodbine, tinged by autumn frosts, represented in one corner, a winter scene in another, and flying swallows in the third. Miss Todd also exhibited a hand-painted china bread-tray, a plaque of wild roses, a landscape on the Hudson, two black-and-white pieces, and several other creditable sketches.

Miss Emma Sinsabaugh has a very handsome landscape in Wales, and two black-and-whites which show real artistic merit.

Miss Flora Howes shows a pretty landscape and a snow scene.

Miss Eula Gilbert has a panel picture of poppies, very brilliant in coloring.

Miss Bertha Lindley's handiwork is represented by a decorated China bread tray, and a landscape.

Miss Daisy Austin has some attractive pieces.

Miss Nellie Gray shows three black-and-white paintings that are good.

Mrs. C. S. Nellis has a panel of Cherokee roses, very handsome.

Miss Gracie Stewart shows a black-and-white.

Miss Smoot has two black-and-white pieces.

Miss Lulu Gilbert has a handsome plaque.

THE SCHOOL EXHIBIT.

Miss Harris, of the Eighth-street School, was in charge of a new booth last night, which represented, in a hundred or more drawings, the skill of public school pupils. There were maps; conventional and industrial drawings by Mrs. Bradfield's scholars; some very creditable physiological sketches and an array of flowers which gave tone and elegance to the display.

The Tustin booth last evening displayed a chair done in white Lady Banksia roses. Mrs. Vanderlip of Tustin, is entitled to the credit for this decoration. Three boxes of flowers arrived from this booth yesterday, and were disposed entirely by the hands of Mrs. M. J. Bundy.

THE SAN GABRIEL-ALHAMBRA BOOTH

furnishes a most interesting study for the botanist who wishes to look up California flora. The greatest variety of wild plants, from the little "baby eye" to the castor bean and thistle, are there exhibited. Following is a partial list: Brodea capitata, monolopia major, penstamon corymbosus, layea platagiossa, calachortus splendens (mariposa lily), sidalcea humilis, claytonia perfoliata (Spanish lettuce); wild tobacco from roof of San Gabriel Mission Church; rummex hymenocephalus (wild rhubarb); pine blossoms; calendini menziesii (wild portulaca); orthocarpus purpurascens, ("painted feather or "paint-brush"); eschscholtzia Californica ("baby blue" or "baby eye"); nemophila insignis, delphinium Californicum (lark-spur); platystemon Californica, a poppy ("cream cup"); chilicote, and the following ferns: Asplenium argutum, pteris aquilina (common "brake"), gymnogramus triangularis (gold and silver-backed), pellaea andromeda folia (rock fern), pollaea ornithopus, woodwardia radicans. There were other choice flowers in this booth, such as single and double Cherokee roses, bottlebrush bloom (same order as eucalyptus), and some elegant Luxenburg rosebuds. The ladies wish it known that they will sell roots of ferns exhibited on the last day of the festival for the benefit of the Society.

"Our Mary."

Mary Anderson is the victim of the tomahawk of the Sacramento Bee. That paper publishes a slashing criticism of the actress, in which it charges that on her late appearance on the boards of the Capital City, she ably demonstrated her capacity in the art of how not to act. Says the iconoclastic Bee:

> The gulf that separates Mary Anderson from Katherine Rogers is the gulf of genius. Mary Anderson is entirely deficient in the vital spark. She is beautiful. At that phrase, eulogism must stop. When it comes to speaking of her merits as an actress, the plain truth should be told. No series of receptions, no sets of resolutions, no floral tributes can make a great actress out of her. The American stage is studded all over with jewels that shine in the crown of genius far more resplendently than does this woman, "foremost in dramatic art in America." Dozens upon dozens of names could be given of actresses who are far superior to this over-rated beauty.
>
> Her poses were graceful, her declamation at times good—although her voice frequently rose, without any provocation, to a Lady Macbeth pitch—but her acting was inexpressive and faulty; and, even in the most trying scenes, the truth-telling opera glasses revealed that there was no more play of light and shade upon her face than there is on one of Rosa Bonheur's painted cows gazing out upon a placid landscape.
> If Mary Anderson were to appear here to-night, she would be greeted by a house conspicuous by its poverty. No person can perpetrate such poor acting upon a public at such high rates more than once. If this visitation of Mary Anderson and her bad company will teach the people of Sacramento a few lessons, they will not have been defrauded in vain. They should know that "the homage of royalty" is a very questionable trade-mark to put on an actress; that beauty's mask cannot hide from a critical audience the lack of talent; that fine features and fine feathers are no more essential in the construction of a genius than they are in the erection of an outhouse; that gush is not approbation; that high prices do not make a great actress; that receptions, and bouquets, and kid-gloved plaudits may shower upon Mary Anderson all the honors of personal approval; but that no sensible, intelligent, educated and observant theater-goer can look upon her as an actress and not say that she has not been gushed over far beyond any deserts she has now or ever will have.

These remarks would indicate that the Bee people had not been skillfully and persuasively "seen" by either the advance or the rear agents of Mary Anderson. It requires some courage—not a great amount, however—on the part of a journal to say such things; but, if they are said with justice and without malice, and are true, it is better that they should be uttered than that gilded and gaudy lies should be worked off, through newspaper columns, upon a helpless public.

Lacked Appreciation.

In the recent session of the Los Angeles County Pomological Society and the citrus fair succeeding it, the people of this city failed to manifest by their presence that they took any interest whatever in horticulture. The meeting of the pomologists called forth some really able papers and some interesting discussions, but, aside from the resident committeemen, there were not three Los Angeles people present to hear them.

The exhibit of citrus fruits in Armory Hall was highly creditable, and was arranged with artistic taste. The largest and best band in the city was present on both evenings of the Fair, discoursing sweet music, but the people were distinguished principally by their absence. Had it been a Punch-and-Judy show, more would have been present. This fair cost the Pomological people about $500, aside from the individual contributions of fruit, and it is doubtful if they realized from receipts more than $100. Under these circumstances it is no wonder that the horticulturists conclude there is no real interest and sympathy with them here. The motion made to change the holding of the annual meeting to some other place, will doubtless be called up at the next meeting and passed. It ought to be. Los Angeles gives little encouragement to the men who are a large factor in her prosperity.

The Veterans Coming.

This office has received a circular letter from S. W. Backus, Chairman of the General Committee of Management of the twentieth National Encampment, G. A. R., in which the following paragraph of public interest occurs:

DEAR SIR—This General Committee of Management of the Twentieth National Encampment, G. A. R., takes this method of conveying to you, and through you to the citizens of your section of the country, the fact that during the next few months a great many thousands of visitors from every section of the United States will, in connection with the approaching encampment, come to this coast. Many of these comrades have written to the headquarters their desire and intention of purchasing farming and other property, and making a permanent home in California.

THE conscientious editor has this year turned up in Minnesota, and besides editing the St. Vincent Era, had himself elected a member of the town board. Last week, in a long editorial, he bitterly denounced the members of the board, himself included, as unworthy of re-election.

EVEN-HANDED justice often distinguishes itself, and covers itself with imperishable glory through the wisdom of its decisions. A Tennessee court has just done this by closing a term in which six murderers escaped conviction, by sending a hungry woman to prison for two years for stealing a quart of buttermilk.

THE probability of the correctness of the supposition, founded upon close observation, that the injury from freezing, which, during the past winter, was so much more severe than usual in every part of the South, was not altogether due to low temperature, but to the lack of protection by forests, which have been lately greatly reduced in size, is suggestive and not unworthy of consideration by semi-tropic California. It is said that the frost line in Florida has, owing to this cause, been traveling southward every year. The influence of forests upon temperature is doubtless as great as that which they exert upon the amount of rainfall. Heavy penalties should be attached to their wanton destruction, and Southern California, with her constantly increasing fruit interests, should guard her forest trees with no less care than she does those of her great orchards, whose well being they subserve. The "ounce of prevention" policy is a good one to adopt and to cling to.

FROM CHICAGO.

Various Reports of the Famous Citrus Fair.

Richard Melrose in Anaheim Gazette.]

CHICAGO, March 24.—It is perilously near midnight, and, worn with three days' incessant toil, I do not feel in the vein for a long letter; but I feel so elated at the successful opening of the Fair last night that I banish weariness to tell you briefly of our triumph.

It was a large and brilliant throng that filled the vast Armory last night. Old Chicagoans tell me it was a gathering of a class of people that are seldom seen together in public, except on occasions of very great importance. It put one in mind of a "first night" at the opera, and the management felt greatly pleased and encouraged by the success of the opening night. To day, over 1200 single admission tickets were sold, and when it was remembered that there are several hundred season and complimentary tickets issued, the number of visitors can be imagined.

And a more pleased people it would be difficult to find. Even to eyes accustomed to such displays the hall presents an appearance of great beauty, and visitors are not slow in expressing their admiration of what is to them a peculiarly unique and novel display. There is every reason to believe that, as the Fair becomes more thoroughly talked about, the attendance will increase from day to-day.

A Lithograph of Scenes in Battery D, Armory.

The Chicago Inter Ocean has sent out a circular letter dated Chicago, March 29, 1886, from which we quote:

The Citrus Fair now being held in Chicago, under the management of Messrs. Culver, Holt, Rust and Clark, is highly appreciated by the Chicago public, and is being very liberally patronized. The enterprise will most certainly prove a great benefit to Southern California, as it is bringing this city and the great Northwest in closer relations with your marvelous fruit-producing section.

The Inter Ocean will on the 20th of April, issue a lithograph in eight colors, printed from a sketch taken from the exhibit as presented in "Battery D, Armory," and also views of Southern California as furnished by the managers of the fair. In addition to the lithograph there will be an extra supplement of the Inter Ocean, which will also be published on fine super-calendered paper in two colors. This issue will have a very large increased circulation throughout the East and West, and it is expected that it will attract considerable attention from the press throughout the country. Advertising rates for the colored supplement are given.

The managers of the fair have published a letter in which they say: "In connection with the letter from the Inter Ocean, we desire to say that we have made arrangements whereby we control the lithographic stones after the newspaper edition is printed. We can obtain a limited number of this work to supply the Pacific Coast demand. As a work of art and an advertisement of the resources of Southern California, this lithograph is beyond comparison finer and more valuable than anything ever before issued in the United States. Much credit is due the Inter Ocean for the interest its managers have taken in our Fair, and the advertiseing of Southern California, and we shall appreciate any favors you may be able to show them. All orders for lithographs should be sent to J. E. Clark, Battery D, Chicago, Ill. The lithographs will be furnished at the following rates: Per dozen, $3; per hundred, $20; per thousand, $100. Prompt replies are absolutely essential."

The Great Citrus Fair.

Chicago Standard, April 1.]

Southern California has come down upon us with such an avalanche of her golden fruitage as to astonish many of us who supposed we were pretty well acquainted with her productive capacity in this line. But on looking in upon the exposition at Armory D we are led to exclaim as did the old-time queen: "The half had not been told us."

In extent and variety of fine tropical and semi-tropical fruit, the collection now being shown in Chicago is the most gorgeous our citizens were ever permitted to look upon. There is a dazzling bewilderment in the extensive array of tastefully arranged golden fruit, relieved by evergreens and palms and pampas grass. The oranges, some of which are enormous in size, and the lemons, the citrons, and the unpretending lesser fruits are the finest and the best of their kind—choice selections from the orchards and the gardens of Southern California, where they grow in the greatest perfection.

This exhibit will give our people a better idea of the richness and variety of the products of this section of the country than they could acquire by any amount of written description. Here is the living evidence of the capabilities of the soil and climate of quite an extensive region of our own country, and to the settlement of which our people are invited. The attempt to show us the orange growing as on its native soil, has proved a partial failure on account of the frost touching the trees on their journey hither; yet there is sufficient remaining to give us an idea of the attractiveness of an orange grove in fruitage. The "Citrus Monument" is a curiosity. It is about twenty feet in height, ingeniously laid up with oranges and lemons—a miniature representation of the great Washington Monument at the capital of the nation.

This vas collection is mainly the product of three counties, Los Angeles, San Bernardino and Santa Barbara, the two former contributing much the largest share. Although there is something of a monotony in looking upon table after table throughout an immense hall, filled with golden fruit, yet it is an attractive sight, and shows the wonderful and differing capacities of production of our truly "great country." Only think of it! Fifteen hundred car-loads from this wonderful region of Southern California, of which the section represented in this exhibit is the centre, which were shipped for the Chicago market in 1885. Only think of one firm occupying 200 acres as a field for drying grapes and manufacturing them into raisins, employing 400 men and 65 teams, and turning out 1000 boxes a day during the season! Think of an orange and lemon grove which yielded 20,000 boxes of the one fruit, and 7000 boxes of the other, last season. And yet there is plenty of unoccupied land in this enchanting region to be had at reasonable prices, considering its unequaled productiveness, and of which the people east of the mountains have but a very inadequate notion, either as to climate, its beauty of situation or its elements of health and prosperity.

As noticed above, an interesting portion of the exhibition suffered much and lost its beauty from frost on its passage to Chicago. But on Friday there arrived a supplementary supply, which adds greatly to the interest and attractiveness of the fair. The new arrivals consist of orange trees in blossom, others with fruit partially grown, still others in full bearing, lemon trees laden with fruit, and many other things to which Eastern eyes are unused. These trees meet a "felt want," for everybody was anxious to see an orange grove, though it might be in miniature. We notice, too, that the interest increased and the crowds around the maps of unoccupied lands in the rich valleys show that our people begin to realize what all this display of the finest fruit means.

A War Incident Recalled.

New York Sun, March 4.]

James W. Selover is trying to recover, in a suit in the Superior Court, from Ashbury Harpending $17,331.22, which he lost in the purchase, in August, 1881, of 5000 shares of the stock of the State Line Gold Mining Company of Nevada on Harpending's promise, as alleged, that he would bear the whole of any loss, in consideration of a share in the profits if any were realized. Harpending denied having made any such agreement.

Harpending, on cross-examination by lawyer, Ira Shafer, admitted that he was indicted for treason in California during the war of the Rebellion, convicted and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. After a year's incarceration he was released by President Lincoln's proclamation of general pardon.

"Did you fit out an armed vessel at San Francisco with a view of destroying our commerce?" asked Mr. Shafer. "I had a commission in the Confederate navy. I think we undertook it."

"What was your object?" "To help the South in any honorable way."

"Was it to destroy the lives of Union men?" "No doubt that was involved. Our plan did not contemplate that. We expected to seize the Pacific Mail steamers without destroying human life, but I didn't consider life then so precious."

To Col. Ingersoll, his counsel, the witness said that he was commissioned a captain in the Southern navy.

Benton's Hair Grower.

All who are bald, all who are becoming bald, all who do not want to be bald, all who are troubled with dandruff, or itching of the scalp; should use Benton's Hair Grower. Eighty per cent. of those using it have grown hair. It never fails to stop the hair from falling. Through sickness and fevers the hair sometimes falls off in a short time, and although the person may have remained bald for years, if you use Benton's Hair Grower according to directions you are sure of a growth of hair. In hundreds of cases we have produced a good growth of hair on those who have been bald and glazed for years. We have fully substantiated the following facts:

We grow hair in eighty cases out of a hundred, no matter how long bald.

Unlike other preparations, it contains no sugar of lead, or vegetable or mineral poisons.

It is a specific for falling hair, dandruff and itching of the scalp.

The Hair Grower is a Hair food and its composition is almost exactly like the oil which supplies the hair with its vitality.

DOUBLE AND TRIPLE STRENGTH.

When the skin is very tough and hard, and the follicle is apparently effectually closed, the single strength will sometimes fail to reach the papilla; in such cases the double or triple strength should be used in connection with the single, using them alternately.

Price, single strength, $1; double strength, $2; triple strength, $3. If your druggists have not got it we will send it prepaid on receipt of price.

The Cheapest Fuel Yet.

The attention of the public of Los Angeles is called to something new and useful—the world's new fuel, or hydro-carbon gas, the invention of R. E. Burns, of San Francisco. By this invention you are enabled to convert water into gas, thereby making it a practical fuel whenever heat is required. This wonderful invention can be seen in full operation at 236 S. Main street. Mr. Burns is here for the purpose of leasing out the right of Southern California to use his invention. No doubt some enterprising man of this city will secure the right and give to the people the benefit of this cheap, clean and safe fuel. Go and see it.

Beecher on Advertising.

"* * * I am glad that the doctor cured him. I am glad that the doctor put it into the paper that he could cure him. And if any doctor is certain he can cure such diseases and don't put it in the paper, I am sorry. What a pity it would have been had this doctor come to town with his wealth of science and experience, and gone away leaving him uncured! What a pity it would have been if he had been so prejudiced against advertising as to read the responsible certificates of the doctor and give him the go-by as a quack! What are newspapers for, if not to circulate information? What more valuable information can a newspaper give than to tell a sick man where he can be cured? If a man has devoted his life and his labor to the study of a special class of diseases, the necessity of his saying so becomes all the more pressing. His duty to advertise become imperious. A really able man, whatever be his gifts, makes a great mistake if he fails to use those gifts through want of advertising."

The above extract, from an able article by the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, embodies a sound view of the necessity of advertising. Suppose Dr. Davis had not advertised, and published numerous certificates from well-known persons whom he has cured, how many would know, in a place with so large and so transient a population as Los Angeles, that there was a doctor among us who could cure that most troublesome of all complaints —catarrh—whether it affects the nose, throat or lungs? How many of our leading citizens would now be in their graves from consumption if they had not learned of his successful treatment, with medical inhalations, through advertising? Dr. Davis has been located for two years at 45½ N. Spring street, this city, doing his good work, and we hope that he will continue to prosper as in the past.—Adv.

Trained Servants—The Best Way to Boycott the Chinese.

The Immigration Association of Southern California has taken advantage of the low rates to the Atlantic seaboard and is about to dispatch a second special agent to England (one being already there) to bring out a large number of trained servants to take places here at from $15 to $20 per month. We must be able to guarantee them places before they start. Any who wish now to secure reliable help can make the arrangement by signing an agreement to employ one or more of these girls as long as they are satisfactory. The names of persons applying for servants will be entered in a book and they will be supplied in the order in which the applications are received. The office of the association is 57 N. Spring street.

MOUND CITY RANCH FOR SALE!

ON ACCOUNT OF FAILING HEALTH, the owner offers this very desirable ranch, as a whole or in small tracts, at a very low price and mostly on long time at a low rate of interest. It contains 260 acres of land, 85 acres in canning fruits and table grapes, mostly in bearing, balance of the land in grain. There is a house of twelve rooms built, costing a day's work, out of Oregon pine and redwood lumber, finished with white cedar, and plastered and papered throughout; finest artesian water in the house; house with laundry and store-rooms; house of two rooms for men, and ample barn and room. The location is

One of the Healthiest and Pleasantest in California.

The house is about one hundred feet above the land adjacent, giving a splendid view of the entire San Bernardino Valley, and of the two overland railroads for miles each. The Southern Pacific runs through the ranch with a station in the center, and the Atlantic and Pacific is only three miles distant, thus having unequaled shipping facilities.

Parties Looking for a home are invited to call at the ranch and take a look.

Stocks and Bonds.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, April 6.—Government bonds dull, heavy.

It is not often that stocks are as dull as they were to-day. At the same time the market exhibited a very strong undertone until after midday, when there were fractional declines, but it closed dull and strong at small declines. One cause for the dullness was interruptions to telegraphic communication with the outside world, owing to the heavy storm prevailing.

ALHAMBRA—SAN GABRIEL

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL NOTES.

Correspondence of the Times.]

SAN GABRIEL, April 2.—San Gabriel and Alhambra always are at the top. Witness the Dickens Carnival years ago, when their book was the best represented; witness also the citrus fair in Los Angeles, a year or so since, when their exhibit was the most beautiful; witness also the last citrus fair in Pasadena; and thanks to our ladies we again take the lead at the Flower Festival.

The number of tourists driving about make our roads look like Spring street on a Saturday afternoon.

Orange orchardists are now netting (on the tree) $1.35 per box, which pays better than working up corner lots in Pasadena.

The great boycott has not arrived to any great extent here, except as regards tramps and their ilk.

Social circles in the Mission are being agitated by several domestic scandals. A divorce case and an assault and battery case are the only results so far.

The Alhambra drug store starts up with a good stock of goods. Mr. Ellwood should receive the trade of the whole community.

"Tennie" Small has gone and done it.

G. B. Drakenfeldt, the Los Angeles general agent of the Oakland Home Insurance Company, made a business trip through here last week.

Col. E. L. Maybury wants to know if anyone can show a heifer which can equal a two-year-old one he has, which gives twenty-four quarts of milk per diem. It can't be beat. The Colonel has the prettiest ranch, the finest view, makes the best wine, grows the sweetest oranges, drives the fastest horses, has the best cow and pays the biggest tax towards the new Alhambra schoolhouse of any man in the district. Mr. Hinton, he May-bury you yet.

It appears that there are several patriots on a still hunt for the postoffice. Mr. McCormick, however, has a good start.

No petitions have been visible to the naked eye on the Alhambra for more than two days. This tells quite a story. (Beg pardon.)

O. A. S.

THE COURTS.

TUESDAY, April 6.

CITY JUSTICE'S COURT—Justice Austin.

People vs. David Leyva: Disturbing the peace. Found guilty. To be sentenced April 7.

People vs. David Leyva: Assault with deadly weapon. Held to answer. Bail $500. Committed.

People vs. Rudolfo Laughlin: Disturbing the peace. Set for April 7.

People vs. Frank Lorenzana: Burglary. Held to answer. Bail $1000.

SET FOR WEDNESDAY.

People vs. Rudolfo Laughlin.

Eastern Prices Rule Now at McDonell's Drug Store, 271 North Main Street.

The profit usually realized by the drug trade is far in excess of eastern prices. The purest drugs can and shall be sold as low as in Chicago or New York. For instance, we will sell you:

One pound best gum camphor, 25 cents—regular price, 60 cents.

Colgate's Cashmere Bouquet soap, 25 cents per cake—regular price, 35 cents.

Our prices for everything else are all as low as in the East. Prescriptions compounded by experts only, at genuine eastern prices. Remember, McDonnell, the druggist.

The Woman's Exchange.

AMUSEMENTS.

JEFFREYS-LEWIS.—Los Angeles gave a rainy reception to this popular actress on the occasion of her former visit, and it looks at this writing as though a damp reception is in store for her, Friday and Saturday evenings next. However, she will be none the less welcome, for she counts her friends in Los Angeles by the score. Since her former appearance at the Grand, Miss Lewis has played in Arizona and in many of the interior towns of Southern California. She has been pleasantly received everywhere. Speaking of her impersonation of the character of "Stephanie de Mohrivart," the Chicago Mail says: "It is full of feverish passion and intense realism. She invests the part with the fervid impetuosity of a young and passionate woman; at no point in the play is deficient in the qualifications which the character requires. Her work throughout is that of a most careful and deserving artiste, whose equals are few on the American stage."

Sudden Death of a Well-Known Citizen.

Mr. Pierre Clos, a well-known citizen of Los Angeles, highly esteemed among the French population, as well as the whole community, died suddenly yesterday at 11 o'clock in the morning, at his house on Aliso street. He was a native of France, aged 44 years, and had been a resident of Los Angeles for at least sixteen years. He leaves a wife and several children. A Coroner's jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes. The deceased was a member of the French Benevolent Society, under whose auspices he will be buried.

THE TEACHERS.

Second Day's Session of the Institute.

THE WORK DIVIDED INTO SECTIONS,

And Determined by the Rule of Three—Grammar, Intermediate and Primary Departments Separately Conducted.

The Teachers' Institute was yesterday assembled at the Spring-street school, and divided into three sections for the discussion of practical points in teaching.

GRAMMAR SECTION.

The grammar section was called to order by Prof. Melville Dozier, of the Normal School, at 9 a. m. The first topic, "Arithmetic, how much to teach of it and what to omit," was introduced by City Superintendent W. M. Friesner. The public cry is, we have too much work in our grammar schools, and it is too little practical. There is much truth in this, and the remedy is, in arithmetic, to omit everything that is not of direct practical use in real life. In fractions let teachers avoid all long complex examples which only worry and discourage the pupil. Teach him thoroughly the four fundamental operations in fractions. In interest have but one method, and that the best and simplest one. Omit stocks. It's time enough for one to learn that subject when he becomes a broker. Just cut out all impractical parts from arithmetic; teach no rules, except perhaps that of cube and square root; remove answers from the book, and so teach your scholars that anyone who can't explain the method of his example shall deserve zero. A general discussion of arithmetic followed.

Prof. Dozier then made a short but interesting address on the subject of "Percentage," in which he showed the benefit of certain simple formulæ.

After a short recess, Supt. McGrew, of Iowa, gave some very practical hints upon the much-neglected subject of "Reading." He suggested that a course of fresh supplemental reading, leaving the old beaten paths, would be of great avail in arousing the pupil's enthusiasm.

The section then adjourned for noon recess.

INTERMEDIATE SECTION.

The intermediate section was called to order by Mrs. N. B. Cushman, its presiding instructor, at 9 a. m. The roll call being omitted, Miss Knapp was elected Secretary and Miss Davis Assistant Secretary.

Supt. McGrew opened the session with a paper on "Geography." Teachers make mistakes with beginners in attempting too much. Begin with the simple geography of home, then go out progressively into the county, State, etc. Don't attempt the use of the globes until later. Then, after oral and simple teaching in this study, teach it objectively. Let the pupils have sand boxes and make for themselves hills, volcanoes, valleys, rivers, etc. Last of all, teach it to the higher classes inductively. Get your pupils actively interested in it by proper use of relief maps, railroad maps, pictures of wonderful things, photographs, tales of travel. Then this important study will be thoroughly learned, and enjoyed besides.

Miss Titus, of the San José Normal School, then discussed "Factoring," in her usual lively way. She showed that the average teacher of arithmetic cultivated methods and memory too much. Instead, teach the pupil to use his powers of observation and his thoughts. Train your pupil, not stuff him with facts.

An instructive paper on "Reading," by Miss Jessie Frater, followed. Good, expressive reading should be taught, not elocution. The section next discussed the value of supplementary reading.

The session was closed by a very entertaining paper on "Language," by Miss Titus. Technical grammar never taught any child to speak or write well. We teach it altogether too much. After discriminating between the parts of speech, and building phrases and clauses to sentences, leave technical grammar and teach your scholars to talk well, by lessons in "talking."

The session then adjourned for the noon recess.

PRIMARY SECTION.

The Primary Section was called to order at 9 a. m. by Mrs. M. M. Hewes, presiding instructor. Miss Bertie Whitney was appointed secretary. After roll-call the appointed programme was carried out. The subject of number work was first taken up by Miss Mary J. Titus. Her address was entertaining and practical. The address was followed by a discussion of the question of numbers by the section, led by Miss Keller.

After recess Miss Titus discoursed upon language work the first year in school. She gave the primary teachers many excellent suggestions in methods calculated to make the little ones both interested and attentive. The session closed with an address from Miss Abbie Frater, who presented the subject of spelling in a masterly manner. She insisted on the necessity of a solid foundation, and right methods. The effect of wrong methods of teaching upon primary pupils shows itself to their harm throughout the entire school course.

The section then adjourned to meet on Wednesday at 9 a. m.

The Committee on Music began the afternoon session with a song.

After roll-call F. H. Clark, Principal of the High School, read a paper upon the subject of "The Relation of the High School to Business Life." The sphere of the High School was first defined. Then the question was discussed, "Is it good that boys and girls who are not to be scholars through life—who are to use their hands more than their heads in gaining a livelihood—should receive instruction in the High School studies?" Advantages of these studies are of three classes. First, these studies are a necessary preparation for the work of colleges and professional schools. Second, they are of great service as a means to culture and refinement. Third, they are of direct benefit in business life. The surest foundation for High Schools will be found in this last argument. The speaker took up the various departments of study found in a High School course, and showed the practical bearing of each upon business life. In closing he directed the attention of the teachers of schools in the larger towns to the opportunity for advanced studies.

Principal Ira Moore, of the Normal School, addressed the Institute upon the subject: "What are correct habits of study, and how can we aid pupils in forming them?" Study is work, and the rules that apply to work in general apply to study as well. A good deal of bad managing in schools results from confounding work and play. Work is continuous effort performed from a sense of duty; play flits from one thing to another, and follows inclination only. Attempts have been made to make study play and not work. Even if study could be play, and by it all the facts in the world could be acquired, still nothing would be accomplished in the way of discipline.

Tasks must be adjusted to capacity. When too much is required, discouragement follows. The end must always be definite and be plainly in sight. Pupils are influenced by a teacher's approbation; but over-praising is injurious. Good habits of work and good habits of reading will secure safety throughout life.

Recess followed, after which the Institute was entertained by another song by the committee.

A debate then ensued on the subject: "Resolved, That a strict method of grading, in accordance with the course of study, cannot be maintained." Mr. J. N. Keran, of Santa Ana, opened for the affirmative by reminding the audience of the difficulties of getting and keeping pupils together in all studies. Mr. E. T. Pierce, of Pasadena, opened the negative by strongly presenting the means of obviating the difficulties in maintaining a strict grading and method of work. Mrs. C. B. Jones, of Santa Anita, second on the affirmative, admitted that she believed with the opposition, but told of instances wherein it did not seem advisable to follow the course of study.

W. W. Seaman of Santa Monica, second on the negative, held that some schools could not be graded and that no attempt to do it should be made. J. W. Stringfield; of San José district, last on the affirmative, clearly related the difficulties that interfere with the enforcement of a system of grading. A. W. Plummer of Anaheim, last on the negative, defined the limits of the question and showed that to follow the Course of Study is to do the required work in a satisfactory manner. Complete records should be kept from year to year.

Supt. C. T. Meredith, of Ventura county, in a very interesting manner related the experience of his county in regard to enforcing a course of study, and showed the benefits that arose from a strict enforcement of a definite system of grading.

Supt. Hinton announced that this evening there will be a lecture by Prof. M. Kellogg, of the State University, upon the subject, "Language as an Index of Character." The lecture will take place in the Baptist Church at 8 p. m., and a cordial invitation is extended to the public.

The Programme for To-day.

The exercises to-day will be as follows: In the morning at the Sixth-street school the section work consists of:

Primary Section—Numbers, Miss Mary J. Titus; discussion by the section; Language and Geography, Miss Mary J. Titus.

Intermediate Section—Spelling, Miss Adelle Nichols; Arithmetic, Miss Mary J. Titus; Arithmetic, Superintendent C. H. McGrew.

Grammar Section—How to teach grammar. Outlines of plans. Mistakes in teaching grammar. Why so poor results? Superintendent C. H. McGrew; Elementary Geometry and Algebra, F. H. Clark; Experience with Inventional Geometry in Ventura Schools, C. T. Meredith, Superintendent Ventura county.

The afternoon, at the Baptist Church, is to be devoted to Music, by committee; The Object of a Recitation, discussion by T. N. Wells, F. E. Little, C. W. Moores, Theo. S. Shaw, F. W. Guthrie; The Responsibility of the Teacher in Developing the Citizen, A. S. McPherron, Principal Eighth-street school; "Vision of Enoch Payne," Mrs. Alice L. Armor, Orange.

Nothing will take place at night.

CITRUS FAIR.

Report of the Pomological Committee.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week the Los Angeles County Pomological Society held its annual meeting and citrus fair in this city. The subjects discussed at the meeting were of great interest to the members and of benefit to fruit growers generally, while the exhibition of fruits and flowers was large and strikingly handsome. The attendance of strangers was very good, and the favorable impression made on them by the superior quality and appearance of the Los Angeles county fruits on exhibition will be of practical benefit to the city and county. THE DENTISTS.

An Important and Interesting Meeting.

The second quarterly meeting of the Southern California Odontological Society convened at the office of Dr. French yesterday at 2 p. m.

The programme for the afternoon was clinical operations. Drs. Crawford and Urmy being the operators, as previously arranged, some fine gold fillings were made and a gold crown set on the root of an old molar. The clinics brought forth well merited praise and a general exchange of ideas from the dentists present.

The evening session convened at 7:30 o'clock, Dr. Crawford in the chair. After considerable important business had been transacted, the remainder of the evening was spent in the reading of an interesting essay by Dr. J. C. McCoy, of Orange, on "Local Anæsthesia in Dental Surgery." The paper brought forth considerable discussion in which every member took part. A vote of thanks was extended Dr. McCoy for his very able essay. The dentists departed for their homes at a late hour.

The following dentists were present: C. N. Harlan, R. G. Cunningham, J. S. Crawford, T. M. Palmer, J. W. White, H. N. Urmy, L. W. Wells, L. W. French, W. B. Bird, W. H. Masser, H. E. Small, E. L. Townsend, of Los Angeles; C. W. Sylvester, of Riverside; J. H. Dun, of Pomona; J. C. McCoy, of Orange.

The object of this society is the discovery and promulgation of scientific truth relating to dentistry and mutual improvement. The dentists whose names appear as members are men of ability, and bespeak success to the society.

"A TONIC."

They Called on a Druggist For It and Got it.

A jovial county official and a physician of note dropped into a Main-street drug store on April first and called for a "tonic," with winks in the left hand corners of their respective left optics. The druggist, as it happened, was a strong temperance man, and had suffered from high-license prosecutions, for dispensing "tonics" in the most legitimate way. He therefore did not propose to be caught up by a county official, and on April Fool's day at that. So he smilingly retired behind the prescription desk and there compounded ipecac ad lib; rhubarb, quantum suf. and brandy a slight trace. The jovial county official and the doctor of note absorbed their respective portions of the "tonic" and retired, apparently satisfied. Probably nothing more would have been said on the subject, had not the county official given himself away a day or two ago. "About the second lurch," he said, "I concluded that he had dosed it and I knew it was no use, so I let go all holds. I give you my word, I thought my toe nails were coming up. The Doctor? Oh, he's abed yet."

A Strong Man.

Prof. Holtum, the Cannon King, who was lately connected with Van Amberg's circus, and whom many people have seen in his extraordinary acts with heavy cannon balls, has severed his connection with the circus, and is sojourning in Los Angeles for a week, previous to going East. The Turners, being desirous of seeing him in his extraordinary performance have prevailed upon him to repeat his exhibition at Turnverein Hall, on Saturday night. His most astonishing work is that of catching a 15-pound cannon ball, fired out of a real cannon, on the fly. He has been severely wounded on two occasions in attempting it. On Sunday afternoon he will try the experiment at Washington Gardens of pulling against the two strongest draught horses in the city, and he is willing to forfeit $500 to the owner of the horses that get away with him. The professor's immense strength and agility have gained him recognition in all parts of the world. One souvenir in his possession is a gold watch offered him by the late King Victor Emmanuel, who was himself no mean athlete.

Boyle Heights Entertainment.

A very pleasing entertainment was given by the Young People's Literary Society at the Boyle Heights Methodist church on Monday evening in which most of the resident talent of that salubrious suburb took part, including the Misses Carrie Davison, Jennie, Carrie and Ida Collins, Louisa Wright, Maud Sutterly, Mrs. G. A. Fudickar, and Messrs. Samuel Rees, A. G. Fessenden, Holmes, Humphry, Charlton, Threlkeld and G. A. Dobinson. The programme, comprising selections of music, vocal and instrumental, and several readings, was rendered to the entire satisfaction of a numerous audience. The Literary Society may feel proud of being able to make up so attractive an entertainment without being obliged to call for assistance outside of their own neighborhood.

A FIRST-CLASS INVESTMENT.

One of the Most Charming Sites for Residences in the City.

The Urmston Tract, which has remained in the possession of the owner ever since he entered it at the land office, has at last changed hands. This beautiful property will be immediately subdivided into building lots. The deed will be placed with F. C. Howes, Esq., the Cashier of the Los Angeles National Bank, as trustee, and the bank will be made a depository for the funds, by the Southern California Land Co., No. 263 N. Main St., who become the managers of this popular enterprise. The same gentlemen inaugurated and brought to a successful result the "Childs Tract Homestead." They also formed the Columbia Colony syndicate for the Fowler Ranche. Those shares, placed in December last at $1250, now command $3000.

The Urmston tract forms three hundred and eighty-seven large lots. Four electric masts will be maintained without charge to the lot-holders for one year. Artificial stone and plank sidewalks will be constructed on every street. Six elegant cottages are to be erected on different portions of the tract. All of the improvements, INCLUDING THE BUILDINGS, will be without charge to the subscribers to the lots, and the division of the property made in the same manner as that of the Childs tract, which was so eminently satisfactory to all. The payments being, as in the former case, directly to the owners of the land, the price to subscribers has been placed at the lowest possible amount. During the sale of this splendid property there will be no need to make outside excursions for building lots miles away, at hundreds of dollars above their value.

These lots in the Urmston tract are to be sold at $220 each, in payments of $30 the first month and of $10 per month thereafter without interest. The division takes place after the fourth month's payment, which will be in August next.

The property lies between Adams and Washington streets, fronting also on Adams, Hoover and Vermont avenues, and other broad and beautiful thoroughfares.

It is a pleasant walk from the Figueroa street railroad through Washington street to the tract, which is surrounded by handsome mansions; those of Messrs. Burk, McCreery, Hunt and others being conspicuous.

As a residence site this tract has no superior. The water is of the purest quality, and Mr. Burk, at the corner of Adams street, offers it to all comers as a sample of one of the good things of the many that await new residents of that quarter.

The city water will also be piped to these lots when required by the occupants of the many beautiful homes that will be made within the next few months. THREE DISTINCT STREET RAILROADS in a very short time will pass the property on Washington and Adams streets, and on Vermont avenue. Col. Howland's electric motor road will pass on Adams street.

The low price of these desirable building sites is for the purpose of at once adding largely to the improvements of this charming portion of the city.

THE FIRST CLASS SIDEWALKS, THE ELEGANT COTTAGES, THE ELECTRIC LIGHTS, and the unrivalled locality, will sell all these lots in a very few days, especially on the long time offered. Yesterday, although the tract was not yet placed on the market, thirty names came into the office of the company, and residents near the tract brought in eighteen more. The broad frontage and the fine depth of the lots commend them to every one seeking an investment that will more than double within the next six months.

First-class 'busses leave North Main street, below the St. Elmo Hotel, every hour, direct to the tract—fare, five cents. On Sunday these 'busses leave every half hour. Time required for the trip, twenty-four minutes. The same location in San Francisco, with lots but half the size, command $4000 each. Los Angeles will have at least treble its present population within the next three years. What will be the value of this splendid property in that time?

On a portion of the tract there are bearing orange trees and vines. The improvements to be made will be commenced at once, and will be completed before the division of the lots in August next. The office of the Company will be filled to-day with applicants for this fine residence property.

SANTA ANA.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Correspondence of the TIMES.

SANTA ANA, March 31.—The days are cloudy and the nights cool. March has been cooler than February. Notwithstanding the cool weather, vegetation is coming forward very rapidly.

The apricot crop will not be very large this year. The older trees have but few on, but the young trees give signs of an average crop.

Bees are coming into the valley from their mountain homes, and are making a raid upon houses, churches, chimneys, schoolhouses, and all accessible places. The question is, how shall we get rid of them? Starving is resorted to by some parties, and the smoking out process by others.

The Newport road is terribly rough on horses and vehicles, and is sadly in need of improvement.

Miss Florence Kullock, a Universalist preacher from Chicago, has been preaching for two Sabbaths in Spurgeon's Hall. She is quite talented, and is an interesting speaker. A Universalist society has been formed, and movements looking towards the erection of a church have been made. Santa Ana is becoming a city of churches and of church-goers, a fact that speaks well for the inhabitants. The trustees of the First Baptist Church are considering a plan for the improvement of their meeting-house, which will involve an expense of about $2500. Strangers are still among us looking for homes, and they generally find them before leaving. Mr. Crookshank, our new banker, is expected here the 15th of April.

The mania for going East still continues. Our East End grocer, Mr. Ira Chandler, and family, left last week for a visit to his Eastern friends.

Jacob Sortschu, of Whatcheer, Iowa, owner of an extensive coal mine, has been visiting this valley, and has about decided that this valley shall be his future home.

Large contributions of flowers have been sent up to the Flower Festival.

NEWTON.

Free Carriages—An Excellent Opportunity.

All parties wishing to purchase and visit Morgan's elegant Highland View tract, take notice—That you can ride free. Our carriages will leave Nadeau block every morning at 9 o'clock sharp, and will take you quickly to the ground. G. W. Morgan, Esq., will be happy to see all who may come, and will show you over the grounds. John C. Bell, the auctioneer, will sell on the 13th at 11 o'clock, on the premises. Don't forget our great excursion. Free lunch on the day of sale. City Band will accompany us. Round trip only 25 cents. Go and see this beautiful place before the day of sale.

No Hills to Climb.

The Urmston tract is not only a very healthy location, but there are no hills to climb. It is on a level with Main and Spring streets.

A large time is anticipated by the numerous roller skaters of this city at the opening of the Vienna Skating Academy, at 144 S. Spring street. Only the respectable classes admitted.

A Wonderfully Profitable Investment.

The account of the offering of the Urmston Tract in another column is very attractive reading for the people.

A Safe Investment.

The opening of the Urmston Tract presents a new opportunity for a very profitable investment. See account in another column.

SEE TESTIMONIALS.
Pomona, Los Angeles County, Cal., April 3, 1886.—For several years past my health was failing, and after consulting a physician my trouble was pronounced an ovarian tumor. I was then the subject of a consultation, and the result was I could only be cured by the knife. The doctors told me I stood one chance in ten of outliving the operation. Through an advertisement I found Mr D. Wm. Dawson, and in five weeks he has cured me with his mode of treatment, he being a magnetic healer.
I feel great pleasure in giving this testimonial. Respectfully,
MRS. ANN A. COOPER.
D. W. DAWSON—Dear Sir: For the benefit of those similarly afflicted, I desire to testify to the very great benefit I have received at your hands. On the 13th of February I was thrown from my buggy, and my back was badly sprained thereby. For over six weeks I could not stand erect or lift scarcely a pound, but after receiving one treatment at your hands I am as well as before the accident. Yours respectfully,
A. D. WHITSON,

CATARRH.
To all those who are afflicted with any of the different forms of Catarrh we would say there is no disease which presents a greater diversity of symptoms—none more loathsome, insidious and dangerous than Nasal Catarrh, especially if complicated, as it almost always is, even from its first appearance, with an affection of the throat.
From the earliest symptoms (which are generally attributed to "cold in the head") to the various ugly and distressing stages through which the disease passes, the patient is hopeful of recovery, and rarely gives it proper attention until certain alarming symptoms present themselves, denoting unmistakably the rapid advance of the malady to the lungs. Indeed, so various are the symptoms that the presence of the disease is not always known, or even suspected, till it has reached the more advanced stages. The disease may or may not be attended by a discharge from the nostrils or the throat, but there is usually present a morbid secretion and a frequent disposition, especially in the morning, to clear the throat, and the effort to do so is often, though not always, attended by expectoration; there is a sensation of heaviness in the frontal part of the head, and the brain sometimes suffers to an extent producing headache, vertigo and confusion; it becomes difficult to think clearly and to concentrate the mind; the memory becomes impaired and the intellect enfeebled; despondency of spirits and an excitable condition of the nervous system. Such is the effect of the disease, and if to this train of symptoms (which not infrequently leads to insanity or idiocy) we add many of the more loathsome physical effects, as caries, or rottenness of the bones of the face and head, a most offensive smell to the breath, and corrupt, morbid and poisoned secretions, destruction or serious injury to the senses of smell, hearing, sight and taste, we have a catalogue of horrors which should lead any person to make early and proper efforts to eradicate the disease while it is in a curable stage.
Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.
I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless the disease has advanced to the chest and that both lungs are seriously involved. The Inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success.
CONSULTATION FREE.
Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for consultation and examination, but if impossible to do so can write for a copy of my Medical Treatise, containing a list of questions. Address,
